

9 September 1968

Extracted from COINS Terms of Reference

6. A COINS Evaluation Panel will be established by the IHC. This Panel will be working very closely with your project manager and it is requested that he be directed to give them every assistance in their evaluation work. Their principal effort will be during the period January to July 1969 with a report to the IHC as soon as practical thereafter.